Chapter 1
The Blue Envelope

Mira found a blue envelope on the studio table.

"Did you leave this here, Leo?"

"No. I left a green notebook by the window."

She held the envelope against the light.

"Then we should open it together."

Chapter 2
The Second Key

The next morning, Leo returned with a small brass key.

"This key was inside the notebook."

"But which drawer does it fit?"

He pointed toward the cabinet. The top drawer, he said.

"Let us try it before the workshop begins."
